Irish Of Ulster Ready To Do Job That's Too Big For England

ORANGE CELEBRATION IS GAUDY WITH SILK BANNERS BUT PEACEFUL

(By Associated Press)
BELFAST, Ireland, July 12.—Celebration of Orangemen's Day had as its feature the customary parade and in addition a notable speech by Sir Edward Carson, Ulster Unionist leader, whose pronouncement on the Irish situation was looked forward to eagerly.

Sir Edward as usual came up to expectations. He minced no words and the enthusiasm reached a climax when he declared in effect that the government had failed to govern Ireland, and that it could not protect Ulster, the volunteers would reorganize and Ulster would take the matter into its own hands.

Every hamlet, village and town in Ulster had a celebration, and reports tonight are that all passed quietly, even in Londonderry, where the two factions are represented as ready to renew the fighting should military forces relax.

Belfast was heavily guarded by soldiers, but the only troops allowed out of barracks were on duty.

No Conciliation
Those people in England who hoped that a conciliatory note might be struck in the celebration will be disappointed. There was nothing conciliatory about it from the inscriptions on the banners across the streets denouncing the Sinn Fein to Sir Edward Carson's declaration that the people of the south would of their own volition have to hang those guilty of political murders before Ulster would even consider union which the sponsors of the home rule bill have said they hoped for.

Two Bands To A Block
The parade, which is estimated numbered 25,000, was unique in the variety of music and its banners. There was a band to every half block. The banners were gorgeous silken affairs on which were painted scenes depicting Ulster's history.

An American Promise
Rev. George Simmon, supreme head of the Orange order in the United States, who is here with a few other Americans for the triennial session of the Imperial Grand Orange Council of the world, speaking at the park, said:

"It is said that 3,000,000 Irish are going to shake the British empire. Well, we have 10,000,000 Irish in America and they are not going to shake the American republic."

Sir Edward Carson charged the British government with failure to govern Ireland. He declared if the British could not handle the situation in South Ireland, they should turn it over to someone who could. He warned the government if it did not accept the help Ulster offered "we will take matters into our own hands."

SILVER REVIVAL IN MEXICO IS PLANNED

(By Associated Press)
NOGALES, Ariz., July 12.—The chamber of commerce has joined with Charles Butters, mining expert of New York and San Francisco, to promote the formation in Mexico of an association of silver mine owners and silver producers to rebuild the abandoned mines throughout the nation and thus bring about once more the free and unlimited coinage of silver. Mr. Butters states that if the old-time mining plan is re-established it will mean that Mexico will coin 500,000,000 ounces of silver.

The mining expert has extensive interests in mines in Mexico, Salvador and Nicaragua, and is known for his introduction of the cyanide reduction process into Mexico. He says the greatest need of Mexico today is small change and "hard money."

The revolutions and the world war, says Mr. Butters, have stripped Mexico bare of silver coin. In its place, he says, is a vast quantity of paper money issued by the varying governments as fiat money. He blames the great flood of paper money in Mexico for most of the suffering in that nation in connection with the various revolutions.

His plan, backed by the Nogales chamber of commerce, is to have the old mints rebuilt and placed in operation by the association of silver mine interests at the cost of the association and place the mints in operation. Then the cost of the renewed mints would be recovered by the association from the mint profits over a course of years. Upon the paying out of the capital charge in restoring the mints, they are to be returned to the Mexican federal government as its property, to be thereafter operated under supervision of the federal government.

This system, according to the silver mine expert, has threefold benefits—first, it will at once restore to Mexico the "hard money" and small change needed by merchants, banks and business men now lacking. Second, it will provide a permanent primary market at home for large amounts of silver production. Third, it will stabilize the silver market, because the Mexican home requirements will take up a great quantity of silver now exported and sold on a speculative market through San Francisco for the Orient. Also, this will serve to stimulate silver production, because of the better market conditions and thus raise the primary market price for the semi-precious metal.

President Bracey Curtis of the chamber of commerce has named a committee of prominent men to take up the mint proposal with Gen. Alvaro Obregon on his impending visit to his home in Nogales, Sonora, this month.

Meanwhile, the proposition will be submitted by the Nogales chamber of commerce to the civic bodies of all other border cities and the officials of border states.

Slav-Lithuan Peace

MOSCOW, July 11.—Lithuania and the soviet government have agreed on peace, said Adolf Joffe, representative of the soviet government in the negotiations today.

He said this agreement included an understanding as to boundaries and indemnity and that Russia recognized Lithuania's rights to Vilna and Grodno as well as parts of the province of Grodno, which are ethnographically Lithuanian.

"This mutual understanding," he said, "was accelerated by the reverse suffered by the Polish forces. The Lithuanians are assured of protection against aggression and have modified their original demands. Russia will not interfere in boundary disputes involving the Polish-Lithuan or German frontiers."

Asked regarding rumors concerning a possible Polish peace offer, M. Joffe replied that indications were that a satisfactory peace could be signed only in Warsaw.

Police continued efforts to find a woman in the case and to establish the stranger's identity. Police questioned Miss Julia Schmitt, a stenographer, after it was learned Wanderer had written letters to her, but she was later released.

Both denied anything more than a casual friendship. Believing that an alleged love affair with Miss Schmitt might furnish the possibility of a motive for the double slaying, the 17-

Third Party Now Shelters All Malcontents But Labor Which Has Too Much Irish

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 12.—Representatives of five political and semi-political organizations marched today in formal fashion under the sheltering wing of the committee of 48's attempt to create a new fusion party, but the Labor party, conceded the most important group, was still outside the fusion arrangement at night.

Statements from the conference indicated that the tension was high and that the committee of 48 representatives objected to the term "democratic operation" as applied to government ownership of railroads for which labor stands. There were also differences over the name for the new party, labor men demanding the inclusion of the definite word "labor."

Meanwhile the Labor party and the convention of the committee of 48 continued to progress. Each member of the Labor party platform committee was armed with three platform drafts, each containing an Irish freedom plank, to which the committee of 48 delegates were said to object.

SPEAKERS TELL ENVOY ASSERTS OF AID FOR MEXICO NOW PRO-ALLY

Practically every organization in Prescott was represented at the Americanization conference at the chamber of commerce last night. William Allen, assistant adjutant of the Ernest A. Love Post No. 6 of the American Legion, occupied the chair and introduced the speakers.

Dr. Mary Neff of Phoenix, representing the state committee of Americanization, spoke of the many daily occurrences in cities which give the foreigner an incorrect idea of real American character, and indicated that Americanization was a great deal more than just teaching the foreigners to speak English.

That the Americanization committees in various cities in Arizona have been chiefly responsible for the naturalization classes and the need of teaching prospective citizens not only the language, but also the ideals of American life, was brought out in the reports read by Dr. Neff.

The next speaker was Miss Case, who represented the State Red Cross. She spoke interestingly of her work among the Mexican women of Tempe.

Curtis Miller, county superintendent of schools, spoke encouragingly of the work of Americanization which had come to his notice.

Miss Grandison touched the right chord when she summed up her brief remarks as follows: "Through the children we reach the parents."

Miss Grandison is a teacher in the Little Italy of Jersey City and is now on a vacation to the West. She further remarked that she wished the foreigners who were farmers would more rapidly find their way West. She felt sure that greater possibilities for advancement for foreigners lay in the West.

Rev. R. H. Mize of St. Luke's Episcopal church then gave a brief description of the work done in Kansas City. He made special mention of the elaborate preparation for naturalization by instruction classes and exercises at which prizes were given.

Chairman S. H. Martin of the Americanization committee of Prescott then gave a short history of the work done in the past year by Prescott workers, and pointed out that much of the work had to be done by correspondence, owing to the fact that many of the foreigners lived out of town, thus making assembly classes and impossibility. He closed his remarks with an appeal to those present to urge their different organizations to give their moral and financial support.

H. B. DeBacca told of the wonderful aptitude of the Mexican people as a race; how they lead in every subject in a certain school at which he taught, taking all the honors and prizes away from the American scholars.

T. C. Cuvellier of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society of Arizona praised the work of the Americanization committees, the result of whose work was evident in the greater sanitary conditions obtaining in the homes of the foreigners who had absorbed American principles.

LONDON, July 12.—Felix Palavicini, Mexican envoy to Great Britain, Spain, France and Italy, today presented his credentials to the foreign office.

Wealthy Red On Trial At Chicago For Syndicalism

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 12.—The first victory in the trial of William Bross Lloyd, millionaire member of the Communist Labor party, and nineteen others, was claimed by the state today as a result of the ruling by Judge Hebel that activities of the defendants prior to the passage of the Illinois sedition act could be utilized as evidence.

They are charged with conspiracy to advocate the overthrow of the government.

On the opening statement for the state, L. D. Heath, assistant state's attorney, reviewed alleged acts of the defendants. He declared an attempt was made to enforce ideas which, he said, were promulgated in soviet Russia, in Seattle and Winnipeg by general strikes. He charged that Lloyd openly had said that to attain the ends of the Communists the government must be overthrown by force of arms.

The court granted a request by the defense to defer its opening statement.

Notice of Increase in Subscription Rates

Effective August 1, the subscription rates of the Daily Journal-Miner will be advanced, due to the increased cost of paper and labor. Newsprint paper now costs three times as much as it did two years ago, while labor costs have advanced over sixty per cent within that period. All other supplies that enter into the production of a newspaper have risen in price proportionately.

Yet the increase in the subscription price for the Journal-Miner is only slight in comparison. The new rates will be as follows:

By the Month.....	$ 1.00
For Three Months.....	2.50
For Six Months.....	5.00
For One Year.....	10.00

As the present subscription price is $9.00 a year, the increase only $1.00 a year, or about 10 per cent. Subscribers have the privilege of renewing their subscriptions at the old rate prior to July 31.

There will be no advance in the present subscription rate of $ a year for the Weekly Journal-Miner.
